

Director's Report 11.5.2025

Baker & Taylor going out of business

Boundless has been the platform for e books, audio books

Libby is a bigger platform that we offer

■ To offer a choice we will be moving to OCLC Cloud

same quality

same offerings

$100/year higher costs than we are currently spending

$100 set up/subscriptions per year

$300/year- e book purchases for the consortium

• I have been beta testing the program for the last month and it is a good one.

3

I have submitted 5 names and accounts to test product

within the next two weeks.

• Final roll out should be before the end of the month, for sure before the end of 2025

All Reports are filed!

Currently working on 2026 Summer Reading Program Grant

Due date is December 1

unlimited paid presenters - thinking I will still keep it at 3 or 4

Toby is going to kick us off on June 2

Science Heroes June 16

• Dino experience?

Yellow Balloon Dinosaur magic show middle of July

• no supplies allowed on grant will do a couple of crafts, hopefully community will be generous with donations to cover costs

*

*

dino egg fossil patriotic lantern

payroll up to $600 allowed (except for director) ok for Lora & Lisa

I can request books and STEM kits for the library to keep as long as they follow the theme Camera's being installed this week.